

Millersville University
Leadership for Teaching & Learning Programs
Program of Study/Advisement Sheet

- I. If you have a master's degree and a supervisory certificate, you want principal certification, you may need to take the courses listed below and provide evidence in a portfolio that you have met all of the program competencies.*

EDLD 610 Leadership Theory and Organizational Behavior (Fall year I)
EDLD 614 School and Community Relations including 30 hour field Experience
(Fall year II)
EDLD 620 School Law, Public Policy, and the Principal (Spring year I) EDLD 667, 668, and 669 Leadership Seminars (EDLD 667 and 668 - Spring semester; EDLD 669 as planned with Graduate Coordinator)
EDLD 798 Applied Supervision and EDLD 799 Applied Practicum (6 credits total)
Evidence of prior field experience to fulfill 12 month school lifecycle.
Registered by Individualized Instruction Form.

- II. If you have a master's degree and you do not have a supervisory certificate, you may need to take the courses listed below and provide evidence in a portfolio that you have met all the program competencies.*

EDLD 610 Leadership Theory and Organizational Behavior (Fall year I)
EDLD 614 School and Community Relations including 30 hour field experience
(Fall year II)
EDLD 620 School Law, Public Policy, and the Principal (Spring year I)
EDLD 667, 668, and 669 Leadership Seminars (EDLD 667 and 668 - Spring semester; EDLD 669 as planned with Graduate Coordinator)
EDSU 700 Functions of Supervision (Spring & Summer I, each year)
EDSU 701 Administrative Supervision (Spring & Summer III, each year)