

GERONTOLOGY MINOR

Millersville University has an interdisciplinary minor in Gerontology. The program's objectives include increasing knowledge, examining values and improving skills to help students with their own aging, to live with aging people and to prepare them for careers helping the elderly. The program is also designed to improve the understanding and competence of students already working within this specialized area. Students must complete 18 credits to complete the minor.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

After successful completion of the requirements in the Gerontology minor, students will:

- Have the knowledge and skills required for effective and ethical work with the aging population.
- Understand the aging process, including multiple dimensions within multiple contexts.
- Be prepared for employment in professions dealing with aging or aging-related issues.
- Be equipped to assume leadership and advocacy roles, in diverse settings, that will serve the aging population.
