M.A. History curriculum, Fa'23

REQUIRED COURSES:

HIST 520, Historiography and Methods 3 credits

Six 500-level seminars 18 credits

Two 600-level research seminars 6 credits

Thesis option:

Thesis 3 credits OR

Non-thesis option:

1 600-level research seminar 3 credits

30 credits

Sample of topical and thematic seminars (some offered infrequently, others offered in regular rotation)

- Foundations of Western Thought
- Comparative Migrations and Diasporas
- Environmental History
- Maritime Atlantic, 1453-1853
- The Holocaust
- The Second World War
- Era of the American Revolution
- Modern War, Terrorism, Revolution
- Music and Society
- British Imperialism
- Indians and Empires
- Piracy in the Early Modern World

Added to rotation of geographic and chronologic seminars traditionally offered

- HIST 501, 502, 503 United States from Contact to Present
- HIST 505, 506, 507 Europe 1500 to Present

Research seminars (600-level) will continue to be offered in US, World, and Regional histories.