
Regular class attendance is expected (see University Policy). All assignments, projects and presentations are announced and late work (except in rare circumstances) will ___ be accepted without penalty. Students are expected to participate in class discussion and are responsible for contacting the instructor ____ to class by phone or email if an absence is unavoidable.

The policies of Millersville University regarding academic honesty can be found at <http://muweb.millersville.edu/~govern/sect3/acaddis.html>.

The sanctions are scary, but it is not difficult to be academically honest—just conduct yourself with integrity and do your own work.

It is Millersville University policy to provide reasonable accommodations to students with disabilities. Please contact Learning Services to discuss your needs: 348 Lyle Hall, 717-872-3178.
