f. Block entrances

(1) Designated Public Forums are available to both University Community Members and the General Public for Expressive Activity on a first-come basis. The preferred locations are identified in Appendix A.

(A) To reserve one of the spaces, the Speaker should contact Conference Services at 717-871-5938 or housing@millersville.edu. Requests should include the time, date, and duration of the proposed event along with the reasonably expected number of attendees or participants.

(B) Requestors should make a written request to Conference Services three days prior to the anticipated Expressive Activity.

(iii) Exceptions to the General Rules and Procedures

(1) Small Group Exception

(A) The University encourages University Community Members to use the aforementioned procedure for reserving a space on campus regardless of size. However, Expressive Activities involving ten or fewer University Community Members or Invited Guests, collectively, may occur in both Designated University Forums or Designated Public Forums without advance notice as required in this policy, provided that such activities do not result in violations of this policy or other laws or campus policies, including, but not limited to, inte1 17(t)-4()-4(i)5(n)13()-4(vi)5(ol)6(atio)3(ns o)10(f)-4()6(t)

- II. To the extent feasible, the University encourages the General Public to provide advance notice to Conference Services, so that they may provide guidance in scheduling and planning to ensure a safe and successful event. Conference Services can also assist the Speaker in identifying alternative locations if the desired location is already reserved in a manner consistent with this policy.

- I. If the denial is due to a preexisting reservation or similar conflict, then the University will reasonably accommodate the Speaker's request with an alternative date, time, or location.

(C) Scheduled maintenance or repair of the property;

(D) Violation of this policy.

- I. If the denial is for failure to abide by this policy, then the University will provide the requestor a reasonable opportunity to correct the violation.

(2) The University will provide notice of denial within two days.

(viii) Denial Appeals

- (1) If a request is denied, then the requestor may appeal the decision to the Vice President for Administration and Finance or their designee within five business days who will respond within two business days after the appeal. The decision of the Vice President for Administration and Finance on appeal shall be final.
