

Can interactions with subjects be conducted remotely (by phone, Zoom, or other means)?

NO

Will the research take place on Millersville campus?

Text

Note: Research may be voluntarily suspended during the Covid-19 pandemic. Please let the IRB know if you are suspending research

In addition to facility permission, you may also be required to have the permission of your dean to proceed with off-campus research.

Research may proceed after modifications are submitted and approved* and permission from the remote facility is obtained

*Modifications must be submitted as either a revised protocol or as an Extension/Amendment, depending on the nature of the changes. Contact the MU IRB for more information.

